5. Jim Miller presentation regarding ambulance services

Jim Miller, chairperson of Northern EMS Authority, presented a report on this. It is expected to be up and running by January 2026. Area townships will fund it via their current millages. But in 2027, the NEMSA will run a millage to pay for it via one millage that will be brought before each participating township after individual township millages expire. Until that millage is run & passed, the approximate cost to Dafter township until 2027 would be ~$100,000 per year.
